GERMAN ACTIVITY.

IN POLAND.

BIG EVENTS PENDING.

BATTLE IN BELGIUM.

The Germans claim a victory over the Russian army that was advancing towards Thorn, and state that the Russians have retreated south-east of Soldau.

A Russian message states that decisive events are impending in Poland.

Throughout Wednesday there was violent cannonading on the Belgian front.

The Germans have completed concrete trenches on the battlefield of Waterloo, which can be defended indefinitely should the enemy fall back on them.

German warships have bombarded Libau on the Baltic. It is reported that a German destroyer struck a mine during the bombardment and sank.

The Russian Black Sea Fleet bombarded the fort and barracks at Trebizond.

Berlin newspapers credit the German Emperor with the statement that a holy war for the whole of the Mohammedan world has been proclaimed.

President Wilson is determined, in connection with the firing by the Turks at the United States cruiser, Tennessee, at Smyrna, to avoid war with Turkey.

WAR BULLETIN.

BRITISH REPULSE ATTACKS.

The following message has been received from Sir George Reid:—Official: The first division of the British troops yesterday was subjected to a heavy attack, first by artillery and then by infantry, the front falling upon two battalions of the first division, who were killed or wounded, but returned with a brilliant counter-attack, driving the enemy back in disorder 50 yards. In an attack made on a bridge of the second division the enemy was repulsed with heavy losses.

RUSSIA.

GERMANS CONCENTRATE.

POLISH CAMPAIGN.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 19. The Germans have assembled their available forces in the neighbourhood of Thorn. Their immediate objectives are Plock and Kutno (27 miles south-west of Plock, and 67 miles west of Warsaw), but inasmuch as they previously worked communications, and have not returned their movements are likely to be crippled for some time.

Descriptive events are impending between the Vistula and the Warta, which will prove a long step towards the successful conclusion of the whole campaign.

ADVANCE GUARDS RETREAT.

A communique states: The Russian advance guards between the Vistula and Warta are falling back in the direction of Bzura.

EAST PRUSSIAN FRONT.

The Russians continue fighting all day towards the town of Gumbinnen (East Prussia), which the enemy is defending (see the communique).

The enemy abandoned upwards of 300 dead in the trenches at Verschlagen.

AUSTRIANS DEFEATED.

The Russians defeated some Austrian troops at Lodovina.

GERMAN STATEMENT.

RUSSIANS' RETREAT.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 18. A German communique states: The little north of Lodz (75 miles west-south-west of Warsaw) is developing, and is undisturbed.

The Russian south-east of Soldau have retreated on Mlava (46 miles north-north-west of Plock).

A GALLANT DEED.

PONTON BLOWN UP.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 19. The Germans were constructing a pontoon on the Vistula, when a Russian officer with 30 men, under a fourfold fire, captured a pontoon, blowing it up against the pontoon and destroying the latter. Only a few of the Russians escaped alive.

The troops in some places were in contact for many hours, incessant bayonet attack being made.

GENEROUS REVENGE.

A CITY'S RANSOM.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 18. Details of the Russian annexation of Bukovina show that the Cossacks made a dramatic entry into Czernowitz, the capital, with bands playing and chorists singing.

General Arinof, the Russian commander, summoned the townsfolk to the steps of the Municipal Palace, and levied on the city a fine of 900,000 roubles in revenge for the amount that the Austrian commander, General Duinann, had extracted from Kamenez Podolski (capital of Podolia), where General Arinof's daughter was obliged to sacrifice her own jewels to satisfy the demand. General Arinof threatened, if the demand was not complied with immediately, to train big guns on the city and level Czernowitz to the ground.

The populace were terror-stricken, but finally the Archbishop persuaded General Arinof to accept 300,000 crowns.

The whole day the city fathers and priests travelled the countryside, begging for money. Peasants came to the Town Hall weeping and deposited their trinkets. Jews sacrificed their ritual candelabra, and the Archbishop contributed 50,000 crowns worth of silver altar furniture. Finally the burgomaster broke the shops of a goldsmith who had fled.

When the money had been collected General Arinof came to the Town Hall and said:—"City Fathers: You look fagged." After inspecting the treasures he said: "Take it back; I only wanted your experience the hearthburnings of Kamenez Podolski."

THE BALTIC.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 19. A communique states that two German cruisers and ten destroyers bombarded Libau on the Baltic, causing several fires. In the bombardment five persons were killed, including some women. Thirty-four were injured.

It is reported that a German destroyer during the bombardment struck a mine and sank.

The bombardment damaged several factories, the railway station, and the power station. A petroleum reservoir was destroyed by fire.

VIOLENT CANNONADE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

PARIS, Nov. 19. A communique issued at midnight states: There was a very violent and almost ceaseless cannonade throughout the day on the northern front.

The Germans mined and blew up the western part of Chauvencourt.

A previous communique stated:—The German bombardment from the Yser to the Somme continued. There is considerable activity, especially between Neuport and east and south of Ypres. We repulsed isolated infantry attacks.

The Zouaves, by a brilliant bayonet charge, carried a wood near Sixchoote, which had been captured by the British.

The bombardment of Reims was continued.

We regained the western front of Chauvencourt, despite counter attacks.

We forced a Landwehr battalion to withdraw from St. Marie-aux-Mines (to Mar. Kirch), in Alsace. The Germans lost half their effective troops.

WATERLOO.

WINTER FORTIFICATIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 19. The Canal correspondent of the "Daily Chronicle" states that German transport wagons are choosing the roads towards Brussels, apparently preparatory to drawing the fighting line further back.

The Germans have completed concrete trenches on the battlefield of Waterloo, which, it is calculated, can be indefinitely defended in comparative comfort during the winter.

The Allies hope that the Germans will make more attacks before retreating.

DEFENSIVE MEASURES.

LAND MINES.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 19. The Germans are taking great defensive measures from Bruges to Courtrai.

They are also strewing mines from the front towards Brussels.

IN FRANCE.

LONDON, Nov. 19. The "Daily Mail" says there are indications that the Germans are strengthening their lines towards Soissons.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. The State Department has been informed that Turkish forts in Smyrna fired on the United States cruiser Tennessee.

It is understood that the cruiser was sending a detachment of blue-jackets ashore in order to protect the Consulate.

Mr. Daniels (Secretary of the Navy) has admitted that four are entertained for the safety of the United States Consulate, but he will not take action until further information is available.

UNITED STATES POLICY.

WILL AVOID WAR.

President Wilson is determined, despite all statements to the contrary, to make what the facts of the alleged firing on the United States cruiser Tennessee appear to be, to avoid war with Turkey.

The State Department confidently believes the Ottoman Government will apologise for the Tennessee incident.

A MISUNDERSTANDING.

LONDON, Nov. 19. The Tennessee has proceeded to Chios (an island of the Aegean Sea, belonging to Turkey).

There is an indication that the action of the Turkish forts was due to a misunderstanding.

MINES OFF IRELAND.

STARTLING SUGGESTION.

LONDON, Nov. 19. Earl Meath, in the House of Lords last night, hinted that the German mine field off the north-east coast of Ireland was laid

CENTRE OF ARTILLERY FIRE.

Scarcely a stone upon stone is left, and the ruins have become a vast necropolis for the German dead.

A German soldier stated that out of his troop of 3000, barely 100 survived.

Lord Crewe, representing the Government, confessed that Earl Meath's suggestion had not been heard of before. The Government believed that the mines were sown there under a neutral flag.

EAST AFRICA.

BRITISH CASUALTIES.

LONDON, Nov. 19. Lord Crewe, in the House of Lords last night, said that at the beginning of the war the position of the British troops in East Africa was less strong than the German position. Reinforcements were twice sent from India to the theatre.

The British sustained heavy losses in a fruitless action against a position that was powerfully held by the Germans. Our total casualties in East Africa in the two months were 900.

Mr. T. Mackenzie (High Commissioner for New Zealand) has telegraphed to Lady Roberts:—"The memory of his noble life will never die."

THE AUCADIOUS.

The New York cablegram regarding the battleship Aucadious was quite in the dark as to what the reports concerning her were. The latest cable from the Admiralty officer of the Olympic has denied that her steamer rescued a single blue-jacket from the Aucadious, and declared that passengers who said they had been on the Aucadious were lying. However, whatever the story that the imaginative passengers told, we are glad to know it was false.

The Aucadious is one of the most powerful of the British super-Dreadnoughts. She belongs to the King George V class, together with the name ship, the Ajax, and the Centurion, and was only completed last year, at a cost of £1,958,397. Her displacement is 19,000 tons, but when fully armed, she will displace 20,000 tons. She is 260 ft. in length, with a beam of 80 ft., and all her turbines of 10,000 H.P. drive her at a speed of 21 knots. Her armament consists of ten 12-inch and sixteen 4-inch guns, with three submerged torpedo tubes. All the big guns, which are mounted in pairs in turrets, are in the centre line. She has a broad armour belt amidships, with thinner plating above and at the ends. The turrets are of the quick-firing type, and are practically unprotected. A maximum supply of 2700 tons of fuel can be carried, and her complement is 900 officers and men.

THE JEHAD.

The Sheikh-ul-Islam, or Grand Mufti, who according to the German Emperor, has proclaimed a Jihad or Holy War against the Allies, is a consulting canon-lawyer in Turkey. A mufti is a consulting canon-lawyer in Turkey, who, upon application, gives fatwas or legal opinions on points of canon law. It is a curious fact that the Grand Mufti who was created by the Ottoman Sultan Mohammed II. in 1453, after the capture of Constantinople. He is the head of the ecclesiastical side of the Empire, and is assisted by a council of four. The Grand Mufti is a secular figure, while the Grand Vizier is at the head of secular matters. Although his powers are delegated by the Sultan, he is appointed and he is dismissed by the Sultan. The Sultan may dismiss him before he has a chance to issue a fatwa; but if he does issue it, it is usually a religious one, and it is not the duty of the Sultan to interfere with it.
